1 The Algorithm

We implemented our model with the Java programming language. The basic idea is to run a set of procedures which affect the state of the world (e.g. infections, vaccinations...) daily.

First we run a SEIAR algorithm in-city, which is illustrated in the following section in detail. Then a similar procedure is run on an inter-city level, with different parameters, and finally on an inter-regional level.